

Oklahoma City Gator Club

December 14, 2008

Dear Fellow Gator Fan,

My name is Larry Pecan and I am a University of Florida alumnus who has lived here in Oklahoma City for two years. After watching many a Gator game alone, including a few national championships, my wife and I have decided to try to bring Gator fans together to share stories and watch sports together.

I would like to invite you to join the unofficial Gator Club of Oklahoma City. If you choose to join, membership will be completely free, and all you need to do is sign up on the website at <http://www.okgators.com>. We are planning our first meetup for the SEC championship on Saturday December 6, at 3:00 PM at the Deep Deuce Grill in downtown Oklahoma City. Please invite any Gator fans whom you may know. Also, sure to check back on the website for any location updates because the time and location may change.

I found your contact information from the University of Florida's alumni database of Oklahoma alumni. I apologize if you are receiving this letter in error, or simply do not want to receive such correspondence. I assure you that this will be the last time I send you unsolicited mail and that your contact information has and will be kept completely private. Lastly, please understand that we are in no way affiliated with the University of Florida, or the UF Alumni Association. We are also not an official UFAA Gator Club because Oklahoma lacks (just barely) the requisite number of dues-paying alumni members.

I sincerely hope you consider joining the Gator Club of Oklahoma City. I look forward to watching the SEC championship with you! If you have any questions, please visit the website or email me at admin@okgators.com.

Go Gators!

Lawrence E. Pecan
